DESCRIPTION.

A Puritan pastor's guide for living the Christian life. Twenty sections comprise the practical spiritual counsel publicly and privately provided by the author during his ministry, as well as profitable meditations and directions he had gleaned from other authors. — Alexander Grosart wrote of Joseph Church: "He was one of 'The Ejected' of 1662, having been minister of St. Katherine's Coleman Street, London. His Christian's Daily Monitor is worthy to be placed beside [Henry] Scudder's kindred treatise, [The Christian's Daily Walk]." There is much material for serious meditation and practical daily Christian living.

DEDICATION.

To Mrs. Elizabeth Papilion, Eldest Daughter to Mr. Thomas Papilion,
The Author wishes increase of Grace and Peace.

THE intent of this Dedication, is not to tell the world how hopeful and towardly a child you are, but partly for my own sake, to testify my sense of those many kindnesses I have received from your parents; which I cannot see any possibility I should ever requite, and the least I can do is to acknowledge. Loving parents accept from a poor hand a small kindness that is shown to their children. Even God Himself our Heavenly Father, because our goodness extends not to Him, accepts of what we do to His children; and because my thankfulness cannot ascend, I was willing that it should descend, ever judging it a true principle, If I cannot do the good I would, to do what good I
